(Revised in January 2013)

1. Send two copies of the text, figures and tables to the following:
Editorial Office of Japanese Cosmetic Science Society
C/O International Academic Publishing Co., Ltd.
4-4-19 Takadanobaba, Shinjuku-ku, Tokyo 169-0075
2. Any and all copyrights to the papers and/or articles posted in the Journal belong to the JCSS.
3. The Editorial Office may request that corrections be made to the manuscript.
4. Any deadline and number of pages designated by the Editorial Committee at the time of request of a paper must be observed.
5. Authors may check his/her manuscript, in principle, only once. Any corrections other than typographical errors should be avoided where possible.
6. Corrections of typographical errors after publication may be posted in the Journal, upon request. Any other corrections will not be accepted in principle.
7. Additional copies are not free. They will be available at 3,500 yen per copy. Please place any order when returning the manuscript you checked and proofed to the Office.
8. Style guide for manuscripts
 - Manuscripts should be written in Times New Romans with a 3 cm margin on all four sides (12 point font size and 1.5 line). 70 letters in English per line and approx. 25 lines per page). Letters and numbers should be written in single-byte characters. Pictures should be monochrome, in principle.
 - For Japanese written papers, be sure to mention the title, organization and address also in English.
 - For Japanese written papers, include the name also in Roma-ji (Roman letters).
 - Attach the English abstract (300 words or less) to the manuscript.
 - Send two copies of the printed manuscript and media (in principle, CD-R) containing its data (in principle, PDF) to the Editorial Office of the Japanese Cosmetic Science Society. The author must keep a copy of the manuscript data to be submitted at hand. Submitted media containing the manuscript will not be returned to the author. Make sure that the content of the print-out (hard copy) is identical to that recorded on the media.
 - Please refer to the Author Information for Journal of Japanese Cosmetic Science Society for further details.
